

ADACO PACKAGE TRACKER™: TOTAL CONTROL DELIVERS GREATER PROFITS

Complete reporting and logistical control for in-house package-receiving and distribution operations...

Package Tracker is a comprehensive tracking solution that helps manage every step of your package receipt and delivery operations. By giving your employees the most efficient tools available, including a complete array of standard and customized management reports, Package Tracker multiplies staff productivity, melts away expenses and enhances your profit-center potential. Package Tracker provides a complete reporting and logistical control of your in-house package receiving and distribution operations - greatly increasing staff efficiency, reducing expenses and maximizing profit-center potential.